

Memorandum of Understanding between
Nanchang University (NCU)
Jiangxi Province, People's Republic of China and Petrozavodsk State Glazunov Conservatory
(PSGC)
Petrozavodsk, Republic of Karelia

In consideration of common interests in education, and in the spirit of goodwill and mutually beneficial cooperation, the two parties have agreed to explore opportunities for academic collaboration in the forms outlined by this Memorandum of Understanding.

Objectives

The principle of this Memorandum is to promote international friendship through collaborations in fields of joint running academic programs and exchange of faculty members and students.

This may entail the following items:

- a) Jointly run Music Summer Camps, here refers to students of NCU go to PSGC during the summer vocation for a short-term studying and receiving relevant certificates from PSGC. Specialties of the NCU students including but not limited to:

Piano Performance

Orchestral Instruments Performance

Vocal Music

Detailed information including the scale of the camp, studying duration and fees will be further stated in specific agreements.

- b) Jointly run Masters' class during summer vocation, here refers to teachers of PSGC come and give lectures in NCU for short terms during summer vocation.

- c) Exchange of faculty members, which refers to teachers from each party visiting or teaching in the other party for short or long terms so as enhance the exchange and cooperation between the two parties.

Implementation of this Memorandum

This Memorandum comes into force upon the signatures of the authorized representatives of Nanchang University and the authorized representative of the Petrozavodsk State Glazunov Conservatory.

Prior to any activities envisaged by this Memorandum being implemented, the parties will require to agree specific and detailed arrangement for such activities and to record such agreements within specific memoranda.

Nanchang University

Signature:

Xu Maoyun
徐毛云

Petrozavodsk State Glazunov Conservatory

Signature:

Александр
Александр

Date: September 16, 2009