

Cooperation Outline Agreement

This agreement is made between Shanghai Normal University (hereafter as "Party A") and Petrozavodsk State Glazunov Conservatory (hereafter as "Party B").

After several friendly negotiations, both parties decided to conduct cooperation and exchange between the two institutions (mainly between the College of Music of Shanghai Normal University and Petrozavodsk State Glazunov Conservatory). It is mutually agreed that:

1. Both parties will send professional teachers for short-term exchanges. The host institution will offer assistance in the arrangement of courses, academic communication, performance observation and facilities for exchange activities.
2. Both parties will send their art groups to the other party for art exchanges. The host institution will offer assistance in the arrangement of transportation, meals, accommodation and the performance hall.
3. The two parties will discuss step by step the feasibility of joint programs with regard to curriculum articulation, the possibility of offering relevant certificates, etc.
4. Both parties agree to work on further collaborations when progress in the above programs is achieved.
